Outreach / Networking Conference

for

3 Neighborhood Fire Stations

What: Outreach / Networking Conference

The City of Seattle will hold an Outreach/Networking Conference to develop professional contacts between Architect/Engineering (A/E) teams and potential subconsultants interested in pursuing work on the next three neighborhood fire station projects as part of the 2003 Fire Levy. Consultants are encouraged to network to facilitate forming teams, and minority and woman-owned businesses are strongly encouraged to participate.

Who: A/E teams and subconsultants interested in working on Fire Stations 13 (Beacon Hill), 21 (Greenwood) and 32 (W. Seattle Junction)

When: Wednesday, September 5 11:30 a.m.

Where: The Seattle Public Library, 1000 Fourth Avenue, Seattle
Level 4 Room 1

Why: The City of Seattle supports efforts to increase opportunities for women and minority owned firms competing for City contracts.
